Festive, Fun and Free!

We'll be featuring some of the many holiday activities around the state over the next few weeks, but get these completely free activities on your calendar.

Ogden Electric Light Parade

Nov. 30, 5:30 PM

Goes down Washington Blvd. from 22nd to 27th streets.

Lights on and fireworks at 6:30 PM.

Ogden Christmas Village

Nov. 30 - Jan. 1

2549 Washington Blvd, Ogden

Peer into the windows of these adorable cottages, modeled after the North Pole. Lights are turned on daily at 5 PM. Although it is free, donations are requested. Can't make it to Ogden? Click here for a virtual tour of the village.

Gardner Village Elf Displays and Scavenger Hunt

Nov. 23 - Dec. 31

1100 W 7800 S, West Jordan

See Santa's helpers hard at work attending school, testing toys, sorting letters addressed to Mr. Claus and maintaining those all-important Naughty and Nice lists. Join the scavenger hunt to make a game of your visit.

Christmas Light Display

Now through Jan. 4

The Orchard at University Place (575 E University Parkway, Orem)

Walk through a 30' tree, six arches and hundreds of thousands of lights.

Draper Tree of Life

Dec. 2 - Jan. 1

Draper City Park (12500 S 1300 E, Draper)

The tree is lit daily in the mornings from 5 - 8 AM and evenings from 5 PM - 10 PM. Join the lighting ceremony on Dec. 2 from 6 PM - 8 PM featuring Santa, hot chocolate, pony rides and marshmallow roasting.

Holiday Window Stroll, Grand America

Now through Jan. 1

Grand America (555 S Main St., SLC)

Follow Chuck the Snowball and his Yeti friends through their magical forest home. Halfway through the loop you'll come to one of the largest gingerbread houses you'll ever see. Although the walk is free, you may be required to pay for parking unless you also shop or dine on site.

Park City Snow Globe Stroll

Nov. 28 - Jan. 2

Main Street, Park City

Explore seven life-sized snow globes, each designed and decorated by a featured local artist. Other holiday decorations on Main Street include Santa's mailbox and Christmas tree.

Gift Card Winners!

Thanks to everyone who entered our recent Amazon and Visa gift card giveaway! Congratulations to our winners from Liberty Blvd, Bridgeside Landing, Liberty Peak and Liberty Bend. Continue to read At Home for future giveaways.
