From Stands to Start

Have you suddenly become obsessed with curling or bobsled over the past two weeks? Check out some of these local options for keeping that spirit alive.

Utah Olympic Oval

5662 Cougar Lane, Kearns

A variety of programs are offered including skating classes, figure skating clubs, speed skating classes, learn to play hockey, adult hockey leagues, learn to curl classes and curling leagues.

Utah Olympic Park

3419 Olympic Parkway, Park City

Check out the Winter Bobsled Experience where a professional pilot will take you down the sliding track. Learn more at the Eccles Salt Lake 2002 Olympic Winter Games Museum and Alf Engen Ski Museum or take a guided tour to learn more about the facilities. You may get lucky and see some athletes training. In the summer check out the Flying Ace All-Stars Freestyle Show with Olympic and National Team skiers and snowboarders performing. The Bobsled Experience also offers a summer option and test out your own skills with ski water ramp classes.

Soldier Hollow Nordic Center

2002 Soldier Hollow Lane, Midway

Take a cross-country skiing lesson and experience one of the toughest winter sports with the Biathlon Experience.

Weber County Ice Sheet

4390 Harrison Boulevard, Ogden

Learn to skate, learn to curl and learn to play hockey programs are available through several partnerships.

World Men's Curling Championship

Check out professional curling live from March 27 – April 4 at the Weber County Ice Sheet. Tickets start as low as $10.

Park City Ice Arena

600 Gillmor Way, Park City

Skating, hockey and speedskating classes are all offered. Learn to curl events and curling league opportunities are available at the arena through the Park City Curling Club.

Snowbasin Resort

3925 E Snowbasin Rd., Huntsville

Ski the Grizzly and Wildflower courses that hosted the super-G, downhill and combined events in 2002.
