Spring Scrub Season

Spring is the perfect time to refresh your space and start the season with a clean slate. These simple spring cleaning tips will help you tackle your home efficiently

Declutter First

Before deep cleaning, sort through items you no longer need. Donate usable belongings, recycle papers, and discard anything broken or expired. Clearing clutter helps your home feel more open and organized.

Clean Room by Room

Focus on one area at a time instead of tackling the entire home at once. This approach keeps the process manageable.

Dust from Top to Bottom

Start with ceiling fans, light fixtures, and shelves before moving to furniture and floors. This prevents dust from falling onto surfaces you've already cleaned.

Tackle Forgotten Spots

Spring cleaning is the perfect time to wipe baseboards, clean window tracks and move furniture to vacuum behind it.

Refresh Fabrics

Wash curtains, throw blankets, and pillow covers, and vacuum rugs and upholstered furniture.

Organize Storage

Sort closets, cabinets, and drawers using bins or dividers to keep items neat and easy to find.

Cowboy Pledge Update

Thanks to everyone who donated hygiene supplies to benefit the Food and Care Coalition in Provo. Hygiene items can help provide dignity to people who are struggling and we appreciate your donations.

Join us in April as we collect books to benefit Friends of the Salt Lake City Library. Books must be new or gently used. Books with time-sensitive topics like business, investment, software, textbooks, etc., cannot be accepted. Donations will be accepted through April 21.

Join us on Thursday, April 23 at 6:00 PM at Liberty Crest Apartments (150 S 200 E, SLC) to help sort and pack donated items. To volunteer, call Cowboy Properties at 801-424-4400 or email us at cowboypledge@cowboyproperties.com. Street parking is available.
